

*You will need a Samsung Account to access our network-based smart services, Smart TV features and other network based smart services. If you choose not to log-in, you will get access to over-the-air (OTA) television content (via tuner or antennas) and external devices via HDMI.