

Britannica Education: About Us

For over 250 years, Britannica has been at the forefront of discovery and learning. Today, our mission remains as it was in 1768: to inspire curiosity and the joy of learning.

Nowadays, Britannica Education is a leading edtech provider that supports over 140 million students in over 80 countries around the world. We're here to help educators inspire their students to explore and understand the world around them in new, meaningful ways.

Through our classroom tools and professional learning programs, we support educators in nurturing content knowledge, enhancing digital literacy, and encouraging discovery, while cultivating essential 21st-century skills.
