Environmental Policy

Samsung Electronics Nordic AB

Background

As a leading global company, Samsung Electronics is committed to environmental preservation through its company-wide New Environmental Strategy announced in 2022. This strategy establishes targets for net zero Scope 1 and 2 emissions, enhanced resource circularity, and innovative technological solutions to environmental challenges, aligning with global environmental shifts and stakeholder expectations.

Samsung Electronics Nordic AB (SENA), as a subsidiary of Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd (SEC), operates under the global policies established by SEC. The Global Code of Conduct and the Environmental, Health and Safety Management Policy mandates compliance with international environmental standards, national and local regulations, and internal environmental guidelines across all business operations – from product development to disposal.

SENA serves as the sales and marketing organization for the Nordic region, with offices in Sweden, Denmark, Finland, and Norway, and distribution coverage extending to Iceland. The company is committed to supporting Samsung's global environmental strategy while addressing regional requirements.

Purpose and Scope

This policy serves as SENA's local interpretation of Samsung's global environmental commitments, ensuring alignment with corporate sustainability targets while addressing the specific needs and opportunities within the Nordic region.

The policy applies to all individuals working at Samsung in the Nordics, including employees and consultants, and covers all business activities conducted within the region.

Policy Statement

In alignment with Samsung Electronics' global policies and core values, SENA commits to:

- Compliance and Leadership: Meet all applicable environmental regulations in the Nordic region and strive to exceed requirements where feasible.
- Impact Management: Measure, monitor, and reduce our environmental footprint through targeted initiatives and regular performance reviews.
- Stakeholder Responsibility: Address the expectations of employees, customers, authorities, and the public and transparently communicating our environmental impacts and progress.
- Continuous Improvement: Advance sustainability in all operations, products, and services in line with Samsung's global environmental strategy.

Policy Review and Responsibility

The Sustainability & Corporate Affairs Manager at SENA is responsible for conducting an annual review of this policy to:

- Evaluate policy implementation and effectiveness and identify areas for improvement or updates.
- Ensure the policy's alignment with both global standards and local Nordic requirements.
