I. This Warranty does not cover Samsung consumer products purchased in an auction.

II. This Warranty does not cover any Samsung-branded audio filters, lamps, and other parts classifiable as a consumable part.

III. Certain Samsung consumer products may have statutory rights outside of these periods. The parts and accessories at a discount or at a reduced price which are supplied within the box of the Samsung consumer product for which they are to be used (In-Box), and those which were supplied separately as a replacement for a Samsung consumer product for use with it (Out-Box).

In-Box:
- All remote controls purchased with the Samsung consumer product are covered under this Warranty for the same period as the Samsung consumer product purchased.
- All other Samsung parts and accessories (including batteries) purchased together with the Samsung consumer product are covered under this Warranty for a period of 6 months from the purchase date.

Out-Box:
- Parts and accessories purchased from Authorised Samsung Resellers and Distributors are generally covered under this Warranty, although each claim is assessed on its own merits.
- You will only be able to make a claim under this Warranty for lost or missing Samsung parts and accessories if, with your reasonable diligence, you could have provided satisfactory evidence that the item was missing from the box or other storage or packaging material originally supplied by Samsung.

Please refer to Part I, paragraph (III)(F) for the range of Samsung's responses to a claim under this Warranty in accordance with the table below. In some instances the appropriate response to the claim will differ from the approach noted below.
